HOT SPRINGS MAN WINS FELLOWSHIP

MISSOULA --

Erik Chosa of Hot Springs has won a two-year fellowship from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

NASPA's Minority Undergraduate Fellows Program will guide Chosa through two years of pre-professional experience designed to provide knowledge and understanding of the professional opportunities available in student affairs and higher education.

Chosa, a junior majoring in pharmacy, is the son of James and Faith Chosa of Hot Springs. Pharmacy Associate Professor Lori Morin, assistant dean for student affairs, will serve as his mentor for the fellowship. The two-year experience will include varied campus activities, a three-day leadership institute and an eight-week paid summer internship in student affairs.

The NASPA fellowship program was initiated in 1989-90 as a way to encourage talented ethnic minority students to pursue professions in student affairs.
